POLAND: Central Committee Meeting

A party Central Committee session [REDACTED] may provide the venue for further personnel changes, for some preliminary decisions on reordering economic priorities, and for trenchant criticism of the mistakes of the Cierek regime. The meeting probably will pay special attention to rebuilding party morale--especially at the lower levels--and projecting for the party an image of dynamism and renewal. [REDACTED] some party members at the local level are resigning because they have lost confidence in the party. The meeting also is likely to feature strident calls for the purge of unfit members to help refurbish the party's image with the populace following recent highly publicized corruption scandals.
